Hi Chloe!

Receiving this message was so important and flattering! Thank you so much for reaching out to tell me this, it really means a lot to me to hear this especially coming from you. I will hold your words very dear to my heart forever.

I wanted to stop by LSE before going back to Mexico to give you a handwritten note, but in the end I didn't have time. I just wanted to let you know how inspiring you were to me as an economist, as a woman and as a person. Since the first class I thought you were the coolest and dressed really cool and had a great confidence. And also, at least in Mexico, the environment in economics for women can be quite harsh, and I often find myself feeling discouraged by my male peers. Getting to know you was really inspiring for me when thinking about my career options. I admire your intelligence and your research and feel very inspired by it!

I really hope you can take in the impact you had on our class. Among us we would always comment how cool we thought you were and how smart and how we would always leave class with so much to think. Thank you so much for being such a fun teacher as well. You really were what we all wish to have on a teacher.

I hope to meet again some time and to hear about your research all the way back to Mexico!

Thank you so much for this past weeks, they were truly life changing.

Sincerely,
